

NAME: Dharma and Kismet

GENDER: Female

DATE OF BIRTH: June 10, 2024

FUR LENGTH: Short

COLOR: Dharma – white, Kismet - calico

Purrsonality: Dharma and Kismet are two fun-loving little girls that like to play with each other and other cats. Their favorite thing to do is to skitter around the foster room chasing each other and toys. Dharma is more reserved than Kismet, who likes to wrestle more and nap less.

Children? They would do well with kids of all ages, with supervision for younger kids.

Other cats? Dharma and Kismet are bonded and need to be adopted together. They get along with other cats as well.

Dogs? Kismet was especially defensive with the foster's very large dog, but because of their ages they should adapt to living with friendly dogs.

Background: Kismet and Dharma are Spirit's (recent Meows Corner resident) babies. They were born inside and raised by a foster with their two brothers. Spirit was picked up as a stray living outside in a mobile home park in West Virginia, and was pregnant. She went into foster and had her babies and weaned them there.

Medical or special care notes: Dharma and Kismet both have had vaccinations for rabies and distemper, been microchipped. They have NOT been spayed and will need to get spayed by adopters prior to their 6-month birthday 12/10/2024. They have tested negative for FeLV and FIV. They are eating Fancy Feast classic pate and Purina One kibble.
